CAN COR

This beautiful property was built by the owner to their own needs and therefore has only one large bedroom suite in the main house with walk in wardrobe and a big bathroom en-suite. There is as well an office and the large open plan kitchen, dining and living room with fire place gives you an authentic and cozy feeling like in an Ibiza farm house. There is over head light and underfloor heating and the house has its own well. Right next to the house is the spacious guest house with one separate bedroom. Here could be easily two bedrooms. Underneath a big garage. The garden is a dream with the pool and a fish pond as well as two pagodas to grab some shade in hot summer months.
