In the middle of the countryside walking distance to Santa Gertrudis lies this very authentic dry stone finca surrounded by red earth with lots of fruit, carob and olive trees.

This finca was beautifully restored into a two floor Blakstad Ibiza style house in a privileged location offering views of the South and West. From the first floor even Formentera and Dalt Villa are visible. An extraordinary project to combine an old authentic finca with a newly build two floor country home set in the most beautiful surrounding.
